Verse One

When nails met skin, evil thought that it had won
My savior hung from the branches of the cross
Obedient to death, He was innocent flesh
But Love won't be held down,
Or buried in the ground

Chorus One

Cause love cried out, and grace broke free
Death tried, but His Spirit can not die
With every stripe that He received,
Jesus Christ made one with me
The cross never stood so tall
Painted crimson red for all

Interlude (x2)

why don't you come down from that cross
Aren't you the son of God
Then the sky turned black
And the ground broke in two
Man feared, for what could man do
